Thoughts from the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear friends of Blessed Trinity,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Now and Forever!

How joyfully we celebrated our first anniversary as Blessed Trinity Catholic Parish last weekend! With hundreds of picnic-goers, hot dogs and hamburgers aplenty, radiant smiles, running children, beaming Sisters, new friendships made and old rekindled, laughter unleashed in happy conversation, voices raised in birthday song, sharing of hopes in the shade of our trees, prayers and procession resplendent in grace ... it was truly a day of gratitude and God's glory.

With tremendous appreciation and an abundance of encouragement, let us give thanks to the many volunteers who made our Parish Anniversary and Deanery Celebration such a joyful encounter. Thank you to Pat Coffin, Jeanne Nietzsche, and Amanda Edson who spent countless hours planning, preparing, and leading the afternoon cookout. Thank you to the stalwart and ever-generous Knights of Columbus, grilling a summer feast and ensuring all could eat. Thank you to Kathleen Galluzzo and Steve Glover, with choir members from near and far, who raised us in song and lifted spirits. Thank you to Msgr. Ronald Yargeau in leading the deanery celebration and the many priests who offered us generously the mercy and power of the sacraments. Thank you to our deacons for their stewardship of the day, to the boys and girls of our Altar Corps and our Altar Society in their diligent service and radiant witness, to our sacristans, greeters, and ushers. Thank you to our many volunteers in small ways and large who made the day complete!

In a special way, I extend thanks and gratitude to Mother Crucified, Mistress of Novices, and the twenty Servidora Sisters, novices, and postulants who infused our day with the beaming joy of religious consecration and life. Sr. Mary Mother of God gave a stirring reflection on the dispositions of Mary that filled our hearts with her tender love. The Sisters truly reflected the splendor of a faith animating our lives and embodying the Incarnation of God's Word in our midst. Thank you dear Sisters!

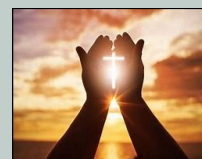

As we continue the work of being Blessed Trinity Parish here in Greenfield, I give thanks to God for our shared witness, each and every one. May we all recognize the power of God at work in our city and hills, in our families and homes, in our very hearts and minds. Thank you for supporting the efforts of our parish in proclaiming the love, mercy, and truth of Christ each and every day. Thank you for being a people of joy and hope.

Most Holy Trinity, I adore You! My God, I love you in the Most Blessed Sacrament! Fr. Pierz

SAINT OF THE DAY: SAINT BERNARD OF CLAIRVAUX

Feast Day: August 20—Patron of bees and beekeepers.

Profile: Born to the French nobility; at age 22, fearing the ways of the world, he, four of his brothers, and 25 friends joined the abbey of Cîteaux; his father and another brother joined soon after. Founded and led the monastery of Clairvaux which soon had over 700 monks and eventually 160 daughter houses. Revised and reformed the Cistercians. Attended the Second Lateran Council. Helped end the schism of anti-Pope Anacletus II. Preached in France, Italy, and Germany. Helped organize the Second Crusade. Spiritual advisor to Pope Eugene III, who had originally been one of his monks. First Cistercian monk placed on the calendar of saints. Proclaimed a Doctor of the Church by Pope Pius VIII.

"In dangers, in doubts, in difficulties, think of Mary, call upon Mary. Let not her name depart from your lips, never suffer it to leave your heart. And that you may obtain the assistance of her prayer, neglect not to walk in her footsteps. With her for guide, you shall never go astray; while invoking her, you shall never lose heart; so long as she is in your mind, you are safe from deception; while she holds your hand, you cannot fall; under her protection you have nothing to fear; if she walks before you, you shall not grow weary; if she shows you favor, you shall reach the goal."

- Saint Bernard of Clairvaux

Every morning Bernard would ask himself,

"Why have I come here?" and then remind himself of his main duty - "To lead a holy life" (catholicsaints.mobi)

The Chains of St. Peter: A “Double Relic”

By Daniel Esparza

Tradition claims the chains of St. Peter, kept in Rome's San Pietro in Vincoli, correspond to two sets of chains used to imprison Peter on two different occasions.

The Roman minor Basilica of San Pietro in Vincoli (literally, “St. Peter in Chains”) is well known for being the home of Michelangelo’s Moses. But this church also houses a very special, often overlooked relic.

Also known as the Basilica Eudossiana, this church is an ancient one. It was rebuilt from an older foundation as early as in 432, to keep the chains that, according to tradition, were used to bind St. Peter when he was imprisoned in Jerusalem — hence its name, in Vincoli. The feast associated with St. Peter in Chains is August 1.

Empress Licinia Eudoxia, the wife of Emperor Valentinian III and daughter of Theodosius II, had received these chains (some sources claim just a few links) as a gift from her mother, Aelia Eudocia (an exceptionally gifted poet considered a saint by both Eastern and Western churches). Aelia Eudocia, in turn, got them from St. Iuvenalis, who was then bishop of Jerusalem, where the chains were already being venerated by pilgrims. These chains were supposed to be the ones mentioned in the passage known as The Liberation of Peter, in Chapter 12 of the Book of Acts. The text is relatively short. It reads:

“The very night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison. Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him, saying, ‘Get up quickly.’ And the chains fell off his wrists. The angel said to him, ‘Fasten your belt and put on your sandals.’ He did so. Then he said to him, ‘Wrap your cloak around you and follow me.’ Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel’s help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him. Then Peter came to himself and said, ‘Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.’ Acts 12, 6-11.

Licinia Eudoxia then presented the chains to Pope Leo I — a doctor of the Church better known for meeting with Attila the Hun and persuading him not to invade Italy. Legend claims that when the pope compared Eudoxia’s chains to those used to incarcerate Peter before his martyrdom (most likely in the Mamertine Prison, where Paul was also imprisoned), the two miraculously fused together.

These chains are now kept in a reliquary under the main altar in San Pietro in Vincoli — but a link can be venerated in St. Peter Church in Rutland, Vermont. The basilica, although consecrated in 439 by Sixtus III, has undergone several restorations throughout history, most notably under Pope Julius II (one of the main figures of the High Renaissance) during the Italian Cinquecento. REVITALIZING OUR YOUTH IN THE MASS

Blessed Trinity Parish is bringing our youth back into the service of the Mass. Our Altar Corps prepare the altar before Mass and serve in the sanctuary alongside our clergy helping with the functions of Mass. Our Maidens of Our Lady of the Eucharist Altar Society, who debuted at our Marian Celebration with the Crowning Mary and laying roses, will participate in the Mass through bringing up the Gifts, as Lectors, and by creating a Marian Sanctuary Flower Garden to beautify our sanctuaries. They wear pins in accordance to the liturgical year as they preform their duties.

Both groups are open to our youth who have made their First Communion and welcome all who are interested. There will be informational and training meetings mid September. If interested in joining or volunteering call the parish office.

AN INVITATION TO THE CATHOLIC FAITH.

The Blessed Trinity Parish will be offering an OCIA Program starting this September. The program will run weekly on Tuesday evenings from 6pm till 7:30pm at the Pastoral Center Hall at 14 Beacon Street in Greenfield. The program will be open to those within Greenfield, surrounding communities, and other parish communities. Anyone interested can contact the parish office at 413-773-3311 or by email at office@blessedtrinitygreenfield.org. Additional information and registration forms will be available in subsequent bulletins.

OCIA stands for The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, it is the process for adults and teens who desire to join the Catholic faith and for those seeking more information on the Catholic Church.

OCIA can also be a method for Catholics to complete their reception of the initiation of sacraments. Together we will discover many aspects of the Catholic Faith, God is Love, the Holy Trinity, the Bible as God's love letter to Humanity, the Story of Salvation, Who Jesus is, the Paschal Mystery, the Holy Spirit, the Mystery of the Church, Mary and the Saints, the Sacraments, the Eucharist, a walk through the Mass and much more.

WHO IS OCIA FOR?

- Non-Catholics who want to find out more about the Catholic Faith
- Those who want to join the Catholic Church through Baptism, or Profession of Faith
- Those who were baptized Catholic as infants but never received religious education, Confirmation, or First Eucharist.

We look forward to meeting all who are interested!

OPEN PARISH MEETINGS – 1 YEAR LATER.

Last Fall we had an incredible response to our Open Parish meetings shortly after Blessed Trinity Parish was formed. So many parishioners attended, shared their thoughts, ideas, concerns and suggestions. And you were heard.

One Year later—how are we doing? As we enter our second year, we invite you to prayerfully attend and continue to share your thoughts, concerns and ideas with the follow up series of open dialogue meetings. Come learn about our progress over the last 12-months with updates on what we have accomplished in our Ministries and our vision for the future. Please be a part of these important discussions as together we shape the future of our Parish. Come be a part of shaping our future!
