Thoughts from the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear friends of Blessed Trinity,

Reflecting on our call to be a light to the nations and deepening our depth of discipleship in Christ, we hear the voice of the Lord in today's Gospel. As He first called Andrew and Peter, James and John, so too does the call resound in our own day and upon these our own shores. The call to discipleship reaches throughout time and space.

Dear brothers and sisters, you and I are each called to be witnesses to Christ. We are to be united in making Him known. Some in ministry, others in charity, still others in teaching and service. As St. Paul urges us, we are to "be united in the same mind and in the same purpose". Each of us are called to faithfulness and discipleship after the heart and mind of Christ.

During our December open parish meetings, this theme of hopefulness and new life in Christ came through. Great desire to engage our youth and young families. Hope to foster community and increase hospitality, especially after the struggles of the pandemic. Eagerness to expand our communications and highlight our activities and ministries.

Building on these hopes with you and seeking to be ever united in mind and purpose, I share with you some recent actions around our parish. Our Religious Education Board has worked diligently in identifying priorities and developing responsibilities for a Director of Religious Education whom we seek to hire in the coming months. Our Finance Council has been considering the various fiscal challenges and opportunities of our parish, especially as we face the current economic climate and support the efficiency of our unified parish. Our administrative staff in the Parish Office are organizing workspaces so to anticipate our growing efforts in support of current and expanded ministries and activities.

Similarly, with the aspiration to enhance our opportunities to gather together as a parish in Eucharistic prayer and worship, I have sought to hear thoughts and address requests about the daily Mass schedule. While our current 8:00 and 9:00 AM weekday Masses are faith-filled encounters, I am also aware there is need for a new dynamic in consideration of the varying work and school schedules of our parishioners, retirees, workers, students, and families, as well as the availability of clergy and good use of our spaces. Thank you for your prayer of patience and wisdom with suggestions as we plan to discern and implement a new schedule shortly before Lent.

Recalling St. Paul, I urge you brothers and sisters to be united in the same mind and in the same purpose: discipleship in Jesus Christ present in our midst.

Most Holy Trinity, I adore You! My God, I love you in the Most Blessed Sacrament!

Fr. Pierz

CATHOLIC 101. Why do Catholics kneel during the Mass? Why not just sit still and listen to the preaching of God's word?

At a Catholic Mass, you will see the first part of it consists of reading and preaching; we stand for the Gospel, but we sit for the other readings and for the preaching.

But the Mass is more than just reading and preaching. The Mass is a sacrifice, and there are times—especially in the last part—when the faithful pray on their knees. Kneeling shows our humility before God and scripture suggests you should. In Ephesians 3:14 Paul says, “I kneel before the Father,” and in Acts 9:40 Peter “knelt down and prayed.”

The Catholic habit of kneeling is consistent with Scripture and is another manifestation of the continuity between the Church of the first century and the Catholic Church of today. (catholic.com)

JUST 4 WORDS.

“The voice of the Lord can always be recognized; it has a unique style — it is a voice that pacifies, encourages, and reassures in difficulties,” Pope Francis said on discerning God’s voice from among the other interior and exterior voices we hear.

And then he repeated one four-word phrase that is said in the Gospel over and over—365 times.

The Gospel reminds us of this continually:

“Do not be afraid” (Lk 1:30), how beautiful is the Angel’s word to Mary after the resurrection of Jesus; “Do not be afraid” – it is the style of the Lord, “Do not be afraid!” the Lord repeats to us today too, “Do not be afraid”: If we trust in his word, we will play the game of life well, and we will be able to help others.

As the Psalm says, his Word is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path (cf. 119, 105). (aleteia.org)

FRAUD ALERT—BE VIGILANT

We again have reports of an attempt to trick parishioners into sending money via gift card numbers under the guise of responding to fake requests from their parish priest. People will pose as the parish priest and trick folks into sending them funds usually electronically.

The scammers ask parishioners to buy and then send them the gift card number and pin, which is all that is needed to cash them in—leaving the unsuspecting parishioner out of luck. Most times its unrecoverable.

We as a parish NEVER solicit funds via text messages or email that involve gift card numbers. If you receive any type of suspicious communication, please report it to the local police and the parish office.
